COMMUNITY

Jessup's dynamic, faith-based, community allows students, faculty, and staff to regularly connect through academics, student life, and spiritual development. With diverse and comprehensive academic programs, students learn through vibrant discussions, research, and hands-on experiences. Students build meaningful and lasting communities through student life programs including campus activities, leadership, clubs, intramural sports, and more. As a community, students grow personally and spiritually through campus ministries, small groups, chapel, and mentor programs.
